It was on the banks of the river Charente in Jarnac, where in 1763 began the adventure of Hine. Two and a half centuries after Thomas Hine's founding journey from Dorset, you have now the amazing opportunity to taste history in the bottle. Selection of vintages going back over a century, exclusively from the region's first two growths, the Grande and Petite Champagne.

Discover the singularities of the Hine House, sole official cognac supplier to late Majesty the Queen Elizabeth II.
