356	Chateau Tour St Bonnet 2010 Cru Bourgeois, Bordeaux France Tour St.-Bonnet's wines are always well-made, under-valued & taste like a mini-version of the well-known Pauillac, Grand-Puy-Lacoste. Classic notes of cassis & cedar on the nose & very well integrated tannins providing the framework. Proof that you can find excellent value drinking claret without breaking the bank on 2010!	DBL MAG (3000ml)	365.00
287	Les Charmes de Kirwan 2014 Margaux, France Second wine of the property, it is the main wine's "little brother" & is generally made from the fruit of the youngest vines & parcels of the vineyard The wine is round, full & fresh in the mouth, supported by a lovely tannic structure that makes for enchanting spicy notes in the finale.		92.00
336	Moulin de Duhart 2012 Barons de Rothschild, Pauillac, France Chateau Duhart-Milon's second wine is selected on the same basis as the "Grand Vin". Moulin de Duhart has several characteristics similar to the grand vin, but is more approachable in its youth.	HALF BTL (375ml)	49.50
278	Chateau Les Grands Chenes 2009 Cru Bourgeois, Medoc, France One of the Cru Bourgeois estates which forms part of the Bernard Magrez empire, this may possibly be the best wine Les Grands Chenes has made to date. It exhibits the plush, silky tannins that are a signature of Michel Rolland.		98.00
291	Chateau Clos Louie 2006 Cotes de Castillon, France An unusual wine produced from pre-phylloxera vines planted in the 1850s & reputed to be the oldest in Bordeaux. 2272	Chateau Bellegrave 2011 Pomerol, France A powerful, intense, rich full bodied red wine with blackberry, black cherry & vanilla notes on the nose; cherry & liquorice notes on the palate & nice long finish.	118.00
453	Chateau Clarke 2004 Cru Bourgeois, Listrac-Medoc, Bordeaux, France With its Rothschild family ownership, Clarke is the superstar of Listrac. This 2004 is a wine that shows great ripe fruit along with new wood, but also the proper structure of Listrac, with dry tannins. Aromas and flavours of cherry, earth, gravel, spice, cocoa/ & chalk. It is nice straight out of the bottle but it improves after being open for a little while.	IMPERIAL (6000ml) 510.00
274	Chateau du Tertre 2014 5ième Grand Cru Classé, Margaux, France A great example of an elegant Margaux with blackberry & graphite on the nose and just a hint of tertiary. 457	Chateau d'Angludet 2012 Cru Bourgeois, Margaux, Bordeaux, France Chateau d'Angludet is aged in barrels for 12 months; the wine is unfiltered to keep its phenolic components intact. 280	Chateau Giscours 2010 3ème Grand Cru Classé, Margaux, France An incredibly seductive, inviting nose of ripe Cabernet, leading to a spectacular, plump but defined, powerful yet precise mouthful of decadent, moreish black & red summer fruits. The tannins are so fine they are hardly apparent within the generosity of the fruit. The length is spectacular & this is one of the best buys.	175.00
451	Chateau Bonalgue 2015 Pomerol, Bordeaux, France This generous velvety wine bears the hallmarks of classic Pomerol. The wine owes its lush, fleshy character to a Merlot dominated blend, with a touch of oak on the nose before you find the earthy, plummy fruits & truffle. A year in oak adds roundness & complexity. 257	Chateau Langoa Barton 1999 3ème Grand Cru Classé, Saint-Julien, France This wine has a beautiful nose which captures the aromatic notes that have come to typify top Cabernet Sauvignon; discreet, almost humble at first, then suddenly fuller, more structured, bringing touches of acacia flower, crumbled blackcurrant leaves & hawthorn.	175.00
271	Chateau Calon Ségur 2009 3ème Cru Classé, Saint-Estephe, France Delivers gorgeous aromas of blackberry, blueberry & licorice, with hints of tobacco & spice. Full-bodied, offering a lovely texture & refinement. Very long and beautiful finish with tangy acidity & lively fruit. A rich, yet very balanced. This is almost all Cabernet Sauvignon instead of the normal blend with only 40 % Merlot, but using 100 % new oak barrels.	265.00
458	Chateau Lagrange 2010 3ème Grand Cru Classé, Saint Julien, Bordeaux, France Ripe blueberry and blackcurrant aromas with hints of leather, tobacco & lead pencil shavings. Intense & refined on the palate with smooth tannins & a great length in this masculine style of St.-Julien. It's made even more appealing by the outstanding 2010 vintage.	DBL MAG (3000ml) 1225.00
227	Chateau Pontet Canet 2010 5ième Grand Cru Classé, Pauillac, France This is a monumental wine, seamlessly brilliant on the palate, exuding class on the bouquet. Everything is in such balance & harmony that I feel I should not bother to find the vocabulary to describe it, so I'll just say it's very special. "Talk about an estate that is on top of its game!" 100 points Robert Parker-Wine Advocate	360.00
2305	Chateau l'Eglise-Clinet 2003 Pomerol, Bordeaux, France This is a Grand Vin de Garde, although that said, this is very much ready to drink now. Made from 90% Merlot & 10% Cabernet Franc, the wine has great power & depth, with super-ripe cassis & violets underpinned by brawny, smoky tannins.	420.00
2303	Chateau Lynch Bages 1982 5ième Grand Cru Classé, Pauillac, France Beautifully mature with sweet, sun-drenched black currant, fig, roasted herb & loamy soil characteristics, the dark plum/garnet-colored 1982 possesses opulent, fleshy flavours & a full-bodied finish. All the tannins are resolved, the acidity is low and this deliciously savory, rich wine is in full bloom.	675.00
318	Chateau Lafite Rothschild 2009 1er Grand Cru Classé, Pauillac, France There is an almost raspberry hint to the nose of the 2009 Lafite; just a suggestion of the elegance to come. Make no mistake; this is sublime. Rich damson & blackberry fruits merge beautifully on the palate with silky, cashmere tannins that glide over the tongue & then are gone. An ethereal perfume rests in the mouth after the long finish, almost as if one is breathing the wine. Absolutely harmonious, this is a magical wine.	975.00

305	Chateau Mouton Rothschild 1989 1er Grand Cru Classé, Pauillac, France "The Mouton '89 is a lovely Pauillac that has reached its plateau of maturity. It has an engaging cedar-scented bouquet touches of cigar box, mint and a touch of Italian cooked meats. Very well defined, very "old school". The palate is medium-bodied and very harmonious with grainy tannins. It continues the aromatic theme of cedar and tobacco, relatively foursquare compared to Pichon-Baron of Lynch Bages, with a slightly leafy finish that demonstrates great persistency. It is very "classic" in style, restrained, elegant and bearing similarities to Lafite. Drink now-2030." WA- 95 Points	1200.00
300	Chateau Lafite Rothschild 1999 1er Grand Cru Classé, Pauillac, France "The 1999 Lafite Rothschild sports an engraved "1999" on the bottle along with an eclipse to mark that significant historical event of August 1999. A quintessential offering from Lafite Rothschild, this prodigious wine is both elegant and intensely flavoured & almost diaphanous in its layers that unfold with no heaviness. An opaque ruby/purple colour is accompanied by a complex bouquet of lead pencil, graphite, cedar, crème de cassis, toast, & vanilla. Medium bodied with extravagant layers of richness yet little weight & a finish that is all sweetness, ripeness, & harmony, this extraordinary Lafite increasingly appears to be a modern day clone of the majestic 1953. A mere one-third of the crop made it into the grand vin! Anticipated maturity:2007-2030" Robert Parker December 2003 - 95 Points!	1350.00
303	Chateau Lafite Rothschild 1990 1er Grand Cru Classé, Pauillac, France " A bottle tasted, of all places, in Seoul, Korea in February, was only a few points short of perfection. That amazing performance motivated me to pull another bottle out of my cellar and follow it over the course of two days. Sure enough, by the second day the wine was roaring from the glass. The 1990 Lafite has turned out far better than my early assessment. While it still possesses some firmness, and performs like a late adolescent in terms of its evolution, it boasts gorgeous aromas of cedar, tobacco leaf, cassis, and lead pencil shavings. The explosive aromas are followed by a fleshy, full-bodied wine that should hit its peak in 5-8 years, and last for 25-30 more." Robert Parker June 2009 - 96 Points!	1750.00
304	Chateau Petrus 1995 Pomerol, France "It is interesting how this wine continues to evolve. Unquestionably one of the vintage's superstars, the 1995 Petrus is taking on a personality similar to the extraordinarily backward, muscular 1975. This is not a Petrus that can be approached in its youth (i.e., the perfect duo of 1989 and 1990). The wine exhibits an opaque ruby/purple color, followed by a knock-out nose of pain grille, jammy black fruits, and roasted coffee. On the palate, it possesses teeth-staining extract levels, massive body, and rich, sweet black fruits buttressed by powerful, noticeable tannin. A formidably endowed wine with layers of extract, this is a huge, tannic, monstrous-sized Petrus that will require a minimum of 10 years of cellaring. Look for the 1995 Petrus to last for 50+ years. Anticipated maturity: 2007-2050." Robert Parker February 1998 - 96 Points!	2550.00

561	Churchills Dry White Port (50cl) A full-flavoured, rich, off dry, with a nutty nose & aromas of raisins & dried flowers. The palate is soft, nutty & spicy with creamy, luscious fruit and a long finish. A fine apéritif and great with starters. During the summer months a super sundowner with the addition of a good tonic, ice, a sprig of mint and a slice of citrus; a lighter alternative to a G&T.	6.10	12.20	57.50
568	Quinta de la Rosa 20yr Tawny (50cl) The beautiful golden colour is a good indication of the age of this excellent tawny port. With a great richness and aromatic complexity, notably of almond and spices, the 20 year old has a seductive texture with dry fruits and liqueur flavours.	8.40	16.80	70.00
555	Quinta de la Rosa 2005 A finely structured, impressively elegant wine, great concentration of colour with wonderful complex aromas of black & red fruits. It is a full bodied, profound port with fresh clean flavours & mature tannins that give it a lively, long finish	10.90	18.50	125.00

RARE PORT WINE

Ports below are absurdly rare. They are opened at the customers risk & will not be refunded in the extremely unlikely event that they are for any reason out of condition. We justify this on the basis that they are extraordinarily good value & it is worth the punt to make tasting history! The provenance for all these wines is excellent.

Loaded with opulent fruit that replicates the nose; ribbons of flavor resonate across the palate with a defined sweetness that coats the finish. A classic vintage port that was heralded when bottled; it hasn't lost a degree of its intensity." The Wine News	1250.00
