290	Chateau Clos Louie 2006 Cotes de Castillon, France An unusual wine produced from pre-phylloxera vines planted in the 1850s & reputed to be the oldest in Bordeaux. Biodynamic since 2001 & consisting of Merlot, Malbec, Carménère, Cabernet Franc & Cabernet Sauvignon, this is the pride & joy of Pascal Lucin, Technical Director of Chateau Grand Pontet. Incredibly rich, full & elegant; it is still very approachable & will keep for many years. A production of only 4,800 bottles from the Cru Artisan, the grapes are trodden by foot & the wine is bottled without filtration.	95.00
291	Chateau Les Grands Chenes 2009 Cru Bourgeois, Medoc, France One of the Cru Bourgeois estates which forms part of the Bernard Magrez empire, this may possibly be the best wine Les Grands Chenes has made to date. From old vines in the very northern part of the Medoc, this wine displays roasted coffee notes, black chocolate, creme de cassis, forest floor & tobacco leaf in a full-bodied, opulent, & flamboyant style. It exhibits the plush, silky tannins that are a signature of Michel Rolland.	98.00

292	Chateau Grand-Puy-Lacoste 2012 5ième Grand Cru Classé, Pauillac, France Always a favorite among consumers, that consistently performs at a much higher level. The 2012 Grand-Puy-Lacoste has the classic, tell-tale crème de cassis as well as some bluer fruits & floral notes. Medium-bodied, its ripe tannin, beautiful fruit and low acidity give it an up-front appeal. 92/94 Robert Parker's Wine Advocate	195.00
283	Chateau Haut-Batailley 2009 5ième Grand Cru Classé, Pauillac, France "...gorgeous minerally blackberry, bilberry & crushed limestone aromas. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, a more structured 2009 Pauillac than others, yet beautifully balanced & with plenty of fruit towards the precise finish. This feels like a very polished Haut-Batailley. Drink 2019 – 2035..." 92+ Robert Parker's Wine Advocate	225.00
281	Chateau Lafite Rothschild 2009 1er Grand Cru Classé, Pauillac, France There is an almost raspberry hint to the nose of the 2009 Lafite; just a suggestion of the elegance to come. Make no mistake; this is sublime. Rich damson & blackberry fruits merge beautifully on the palate with silky, cashmere tannins that glide over the tongue & then are gone. An ethereal perfume rests in the mouth after the long finish, almost as if one is breathing the wine. Absolutely harmonious, this is a magical wine.	975.00
280	Chateau Petrus 1995 Pomerol, France "It is interesting how this wine continues to evolve. Unquestionably one of the vintage's superstars, the 1995 Petrus is taking on a personality similar to the extraordinarily backward, muscular 1975. This is not a Petrus that can be approached in its youth (i.e., the perfect duo of 1989 and 1990). The wine exhibits an opaque ruby/purple color, followed by a knock-out nose of pain grille, jammy black fruits, and roasted coffee. On the palate, it possesses teeth-staining extract levels, massive body, and rich, sweet black fruits buttressed by powerful, noticeable tannin. A formidably endowed wine with layers of extract, this is a huge, tannic, monstrous-sized Petrus that will require a minimum of 10 years of cellaring. Look for the 1995 Petrus to last for 50+ years. Anticipated maturity: 2007-2050." Robert Parker February 1998 - 96 Points!	2550.00
