The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, a more structured 2009 Pauillac than others, yet beautifully balanced & with plenty of fruit towards the precise finish. 285	Chateau Giscours 2012 3ème Grand Cru Classé, Margaux, France Multi-layered, refined with a beautiful freshness & elegance that is the personification of its commune, this is a reasonably early drinker. Developed & forward notes of licorice, roasted herbs, sweet black currants, incense & a touch of smoky barbecue/oaky characteristics. The wine is round, medium-bodied, with soft tannins. 210	Chateau Lafite Rothschild 2009 1er Grand Cru Classé, Pauillac, France There is an almost raspberry hint to the nose of the 2009 Lafite; just a suggestion of the elegance to come. Make no mistake; this is sublime. Rich damson & blackberry fruits merge beautifully on the palate with silky, cashmere tannins that glide over the tongue & then are gone. An ethereal perfume rests in the mouth after the long finish, almost as if one is breathing the wine. Absolutely harmonious, this is a magical wine.	975.00
281	Chateau Petrus 1995 Pomerol, France “It is interesting how this wine continues to evolve. Unquestionably one of the vintage's superstars, the 1995 Petrus is taking on a personality similar to the extraordinarily backward, muscular 1975. This is not a Petrus that can be approached in its youth (i.e., the perfect duo of 1989 and 1990). The wine exhibits an opaque ruby/purple color, followed by a knock-out nose of pain grille, jammy black fruits, and roasted coffee. On the palate, it possesses teeth-staining extract levels, massive body, and rich, sweet black fruits buttressed by powerful, noticeable tannin. A formidably endowed wine with layers of extract, this is a huge, tannic, monstrous-sized Petrus that will require a minimum of 10 years of cellaring. Look for the 1995 Petrus to last for 50+ years. Anticipated maturity: 2007-2050.” Robert Parker February 1998 - 96 Points!	2550.00
